Spirit-Music.

One of the stock attractions at a so-called spiritual seance is music by unseen hands. If the sitters begin to sing, an accompaniment, more or less correct, is generally thrummed out on the ever-ready violin or guitar. When this happens in the dark, trickery is almost always possible. There are, however, perfectly authenticated cases, in which a medium, playing upon the piano, has been accompanied by notes struck on different musical instruments, which either lie upon the piano or are suspended in different parts of the room. This has occurred many times in broad daylight. It has hitherto been unexplainable.

We are enabled to lay before our readers details of some unpublished experiments by Prof. Tyndall and other scientific men, which seem to supply a satisfactory solution for this problem on purely natural grounds. Prof. Tyndall placed a wooden rod on the sounding-board of a piano, connecting it with the top of the instrument. Then, when a violin was placed upon the top, a tune played upon the piano was accompanied by the violin. The Fox Sisters produced some remarkable results by making a guitar, brought to their seance by an investigator, accompany their performances on the piano. When, however, the owner of the guitar secretly fastened its rod with a wire, and so interrupted the vibrations from below, the spirits could not play. Human hands were more successful. In both these experiments, the accompaniment was defective in that a whole octave was frequently missed. Now this is precisely the fault of "spirit"-made music. In experimenting on instruments which were hung in the room at points remote from the one played by the investigator, it has been discovered that by reinforcing the vibrations caused by the latter, the former can be made to play an accompaniment. So powerful are the vibrations thus created that a heavy timber suspended from one end can be made to sway back and forth until it acquires great momentum by simply striking it with waves of sound. Still more wonderful results can be attained. Whether or not every building has its key-note, and can be thrown into dangerous vibration by the constant striking of that note, there are instances which seem to bear out the theory. The well-known case of King's College Chapel, at Cambridge, Eng., is one in point. It is said, we believe on good authority, that the "Dead March from Saul" cannot be played in it without danger. The massive walls and the stone roof sway under its influence so seriously that the performance of the march has been prohibited. When the Hallelujah Chorus is played in the Boston Music Hall, the window-glass accompanies it sonorously. Every church-organist knows that there are apt to be some globes in the auditorium which will always hum a response to a particular tone on the organ. Prof. Lovering, of Hartford, is responsible for the story that a strolling musician in Germany fiddled down a bridge for the refusal of some trifling favor by the men employed in building it. It is evident that the power of musical vibration is but imperfectly understood. It is possible that honest mediums deceive themselves, as well as their circles, and that sound, not spirits, produces, in the absence of trickery, all the so-called spirit-music.—Chicago Tribune.

"Mary."

Wilkins Micawker Jones is of a statistical turn of mind. It occurred to Jones the other day that Mary is a very common name, and, after careful study, he hit upon an original plan for ascertaining the proportionate number bearing it. This plan was to station himself at an advantageous position on one of our thoroughfares, address by that name every woman who passed in an hour, and then compare the number who answered to the name with the whole number passing. Nothing could be simpler, thought Wilkins, and accordingly he began his experiment the other evening just as the theatre-going tide was flowing along the street. First came two demure-looking damsels, "timid and stepping fast." Jones let them get by and then called out suddenly, "Mary!" but the young women only hurried a little faster, and the ingenious Wilkins put down two marks on the right side of his tally-paper. Just as he lifted his eyes he saw a lady with an escort just in front of him, and blurted out "Good evening Mary!" Greatly to Jones' astonishment the gentleman, and not the lady, responded; and these are what Jones saw:

* * * *

He concluded to give up the experiment because there were too many risks about it—especially aste-risks.

A Sunday in Scotland.

There are a good many stories afloat about the punctilious observance of Sunday in Scotland, but we remember none more illustrative of the absurdity to which the custom is carried than the following, which is told by the Count De Medine Ponar, in his newly published work, "The Honeymoon." "It was at the hotel of Dumbarton. I had just got up and rung the bell for some hot water for shaving. A waiter answered my call. 'I want some hot water, if you please,' I said. 'And what for do you want the hot water?' 'For shaving,' said I. 'Ye canna have hot water on the Lord's Day for sic a thing as shaving, said the waiter, horror-struck at the idea. I insisted again, but with the same effect. 'Na, na,' said he, 'ye canna have it.' Necessity is the mother of invention, 'tis said, and this aroused mine. I thought that if I could arrange the order in such a way that it would not affect his religious scruples, he would bring it directly. I therefore proposed that I should like some toddy, and told him to bring me the materials for making it, consisting of whisky, sugar and boiling water. These he brought without the least demur. I gave him the whisky, which he drank, and I used the hot water. So conscience was satisfied."

A Model for Clerks of Courts.

Commissioner Matsell administering an oath to a witness, is thus described by an irreverent reporter:

Commissioner (mournfully)—You do solemnly swear before Almighty God that the evidence you are about to give before the Board of Police, touching—stop a bit. Did you ever take an oath before?

Witness—Yes, sir.

Commissioner—Well, then, you ought to know better than to hold the book like that. Always raise the Bible from the table, holding it in your left hand, putting your thumb under it, and the fingers on the top. That's it. So. Now—You do solemnly swear before——

Witness lowers his hand a little.

Commissioner—Keep the book off the table. Put your thumb on the Bible. That's it. Now, sir.

Mr. Matsell then administers the oath very slowly and impressively. The witness, a little prematurely, raises the book to kiss it.

Commissioner—Stop, stop, stop! Now, stop, I tell you! I haven't got through yet. There's plenty of time. Now let's start again, and listen attentively to what I say. You do solemnly swear, etc., etc. Now kiss the book.

Witness kisses it audibly.

Commissioner (excitedly)—No, no! Don't kiss it like that. What do you mean, sir? Do you know that it is a very solemn thing to take an oath? Kiss the book reverently. That's it. Now, put it down reverently. Don't slam it. That's it. Now, sir, go ahead and tell us what you know about this case.—New York Sun.

Kidd not so Black as He was Painted.

Kidd was sent to England and tried at the Old Bailey in irons. The surgeon of the ship and one of the crew turn King's evidence. The murder of a gunner and the capture of the Quedah merchant were the points most urged against him. Kidd made some attempt to show that the vessels he had captured carried French passes, and were lawful prizes, but he had no evidence to corroborate his statement. He was found guilty of murder and piracy, condemned to death, and hanged accordingly. It is due to Capt. Kidd to say that he does not seem to have been a bloodthirsty man. Except for the hasty blow given to a gunner in anger, and the killing of a Moldive man in reprisal, no bloodshed was brought home to him, or even alleged against him. He was no worse than many of his contemporaries, who were pardoned and employed in the King's service. But he made a mock of the King's commission, had compromised the names of powerful men. Moreover, it seems that he never had sent any money home to his owners. Even on the most favorable view, however, he richly deserved to hang, nor do I ask any compassion for his fate. But as this is the age for revising the verdicts of the past and rehabilitating the characters of reputed ruffians, let us not omit to do even-handed justice to the memory and reputation of Capt. Kidd.—Belmarin.

THE Lick House did not realize by one-fifth the anticipated price. Had we been under the slightest impression that it would not have brought one million dollars, that hotel would be ours to-day. But such is life.

IT is said that the author of that soul-stirring verdict elsewhere mentioned, has applied through Sister Redstone for a national copyright. He is acting on the old song of "When you get a good thing, save it, save it."

THERE is a report out to the effect that the Oakland Harmonic Society is going to sing at Brayton Hall, Saturday night, in honor of the Memorial Fountain demonstration. It is a false report, and the members are partly responsible for it. Members of the society will sing on that occasion, but the Society as a body will not. It was so decided by the vote of the organization, and should have been rightly announced to begin with.

OUR California Governor has coincided with President Grant with respect to the time of Thanksgiving, but he then goes on to suggest that the people after having attended public worship devote the residue of the day "to "family and friendly reunions, to innocent enjoyment, generous hospitality, "and the kindly remembrance of the "poor and the afflicted." He is thus seen to be totally oblivious of the great horse-race. It is another proof of the ingratitude of Republics. A kindly word for Occident would have been in place, out of gratitude for the successful hobby the Governor made out of the owner of the animal. Verily, in the language of the poet, "It is hard to "love."

THE convention to be held to-morrow at Pacific Hall, San Francisco, will doubtless be well worth attending. There will be ultra reformers there in plenty, both men and women—the long hair will no doubt prevail—and we are more curious than serious with respect to the forthcoming bantling. This mingling of black spirits and white, blue spirits and gray, with a drug store and sideboard in the background—red and green glass globes in the windows, and black bottles of spirits straight and patented on the inner shelves—will surely bring to light a human curiosity, if not a monstrosity. What name the child will bear, remains to be seen. The fact that the appetite and labor reformers are taking time by the forelock, would seem at first glance, somewhat distressing to the regular political organizations; but we are of the opinion that it could not come at a better time. They will exhaust their enthusiasm before next Thanksgiving and horse race, to say nothing of the holidays; and by St. Patrick's and the Fourth of July they will be limp and helpless as a distracting element on a general scale. But we'll see what we'll see.

AT last we have a jury that is not afraid to tell the world in one brief statement that it knows how it is itself. Here we have a decision that flings back the decree of McKinstry & Co. with defiance. Local Option is reaffirmed a thousand fold by this horribly horrible example. Blood, fire and death—and perhaps the devil, to some extent. Had the McDonough obtained his self-destructive liquid from a respectable drug store, would there been so much promptness on the part of the jury in announcing officially just where and when he got it? Had he purchased a pistol at a certain store and proclaimed in presence of the proprietor that he intended to kill himself therewith, would the verdict have reflected directly upon the man who sold the deadly weapon? It's owing a good deal to the man, perhaps. Had McDonough purchased the crazy-making liquor at the Grand Central Hotel, we'd bet ten dollars that the verdict would not have mentioned the names of either Merritt or Wilcox. The poor devil of a saloon-keeper out in the woods by the laundry is singled out in bold relief. That he deserves censure—all he has received — the testimony seems clear enough, but the principle involved in this verdict is what we wish to call special attention to. We can see the authorship of it sticking out in a style almost as bold as a sheep.

Mason & Hamlin Organs won the two highest medals and diploma of honor at Vienna. No other organ in comparison found worthy of any award. Sold by W. B. Fountain, 2nd Broadway, or on small terms of $8 per month.

We have seen no mention of it in the press, yet it is pretty authoritatively stated that the Lick House will not long be continued as a hotel. Just what shape the concern will assume, we are not prepared to say. Perhaps it will be turned into a block of offices and sleeping rooms, something after the manner of the Stephenson corner. But what will be done with that wonderful dining room? Make more of an art gallery of it? Perhaps the high-toned horse and faro people will monopolize the Lick. To such base uses do great institutions rapidly incline in fast America.

WE admire the management displayed by the manipulators of the Memorial Fountain business. They have anticipated the Convention, which will doubtless be invited to adjourn to Oakland in a body and take part in the theatrical reform, which the movement will fitly memorialize. There is nothing like setting the sails to catch all the breeze possible.

IT is reported that the platform of the reformers' convention to-morrow will contain a plank advocating a law to prevent any man caught taking a drink of liquor at a saloon, from serving his country as a juryman. These professional reformers will keep on till they render the saloons more popular than ever before.

THE hero from New Zealand, it is said, is scouring over the disposition on the part of the temperance people to ignore his services as orator on Saturday. It is said that he contemplates bodily mischief to Barnes, Pendegast and others.

THE overland telegraph continues to bring us installments of stuff in regard to what President Grant is or is not going to do. The idea of his sending for Washburne to come home is perhaps the latest freak of the sensation brain.

PRESCOTT, Arizona, Nov. 16th.—Election returns came in to day from Little Colorado and Clifton precincts, which give C. C. Bean, Delegate to Congress, a majority of 383. If these votes are counted Bean is elected Delegate by a majority of 150. This news causes the greatest excitement. Several precincts will be contested on both sides, and it will be some time before the question will be settled.

SALT LAKE, Nov. 16th.—A special to the Tribune this evening from Beaver says that John D. Lee, the captured Mountain Meadow massacre chief, was taken to Camp Cameron, near that place, to-day, strongly ironed and guarded. He is sullen and silent, and swears he will suffer death rather than tell on Brigham and others that are suspected as parties to the monstrous crime.

Two of Councilman Spaulding's Daughters Have Taken the Names of Collins and Ingalls.

The marriage that has been foreshadowed in the press lately, took place to-day at noon at the residence of Mr. Spaulding, corner of Ninth and Madison streets, Oakland, the Rev. L. Hamilton performing the ceremony. The parties to the contract are as follows: Under-Sheriff A. W. Collins, of Oakland, and Miss Lydia M. Spaulding constitute one matrimonial firm, and Mr. F. Look to Your Stamps.

Parties dealing with banks should bear in mind the following letter addressed by the Collector of Internal Revenue of the First District of California, to different bankers, and dated Nov. 5th:

You are informed that the law requires bank checks, drafts or orders for the payment of any sum of money whatsoever, drawn upon any bank, banker or trust company, at sight or on demand, to be stamped with a two cent stamp; and the penalty for signing or issuing any unstamped check, or for negotiating or paying the same is fifty dollars.

Dombey & Son.

We took note of Florence last night in the character of Captain Cuttle at the California Theater. He is about all there is of it, although the drama presents the striking features of the novel in a pretty full light altogether. The sympathies and risibilities are constantly excited; the laugh comes in oftener than the tears, and that is what the people most need in this work-a-day world.

The Largest Freight Train.

The largest freight train that has yet left here for the East left Monday morning. It consisted of 55 car-loads—550 tons—as follows: Twenty-five car-loads of barley, 16 of wool, 1 of dried fruit, 2 of seal skins, 1 of silkworms' eggs, 2 of merchandise, 1 of borax, 3 of tea, 1 of malt, 1 of lumber, 1 of wine and 1 of green fruit.—San. Record.

More Mud.

The week of fine weather had caused the dust to rise in places, but to-day we have a sprinkle of substantial proportions, accompanied at one time with hail. It is an early winter.

A New Deputy.

C. L. Stevens, Tax Collector of Alameda county, has appointed Roderick W. Church, son of ex-County Clerk A. M. Church, Deputy Tax Collector.

The Home Stretch.

The wife of Charley McLeverty, the well-known livery and horseman in Oakland, presented her better half with a twelve-pound boy last night.

A. O. H., Division No. 2.

Division No. 2, A. O. H., will give their second annual ball at the Academy of Music on the evening of December 18th, 1874.

CORONER'S INQUEST.

Verdict of the Jury in McDonough's Case.

Last evening' paper gave an account of the latest Oakland suicide, but it remained for the Coroner's Court to put the finishing touches to the report. As stated, the tribunal convened at half-past six—the jury consisting of the following named persons: C. B. Card, Joseph Wilson, John Rink, Geo. Bloom, Owen McLaughlin, Thomas Y. Yolland, E. D. Farrington, M. W. Kennedy, Wm. Williams, and W. K. Rowell, Foreman.

The testimony of several witnesses was taken—that of officer Tyler at the Point, W. J. Elwood, a saloon keeper in the vicinity of the Laundry where McDonough was employed, Gest Smith, bar-tender, Mrs. McDonough, M. E. Kinchella, and Daniel Connelly.

This testimony elicited nothing particularly new—was more detailed as to circumstances. The testimony of Dr. Woolsey, who made a post mortem examination, was the most important. It was thought at first that the wounds made by the razor were not sufficient of themselves to have caused death, but the Doctor thinks they were; and that a small artery was cut, and that the amount of blood lost altogether was the real cause of his death.

The man was doubtless more or less crazed from whisky, which the jury was particular to state, was obtained from Elwood's saloon, where deceased was evidently a pretty regular customer. The worst feature of Elwood's case, is that the wife of deceased had requested that no liquor be given her husband after a certain time that day. Following is the verdict:

We the undersigned jurors called to investigate the cause of the death of Thomas McDonough, find that he was a native of Ireland, aged 44 years; that he resided on the corner of Fifteenth and Kirkham streets in the city of Oakland, State of California, and that his death was caused by a razor-cut in the throat, inflicted by his own hands when crazed by liquor obtained from William Elwood's saloon where he was accustomed to drink daily, and we further find that the said Elwood had been requested by the wife of the deceased on several occasions not to furnish liquor to her husband. Signed by the jury.

THE WAGON RACE.

Private Time Made by the Favorites.

The Alta has the following with respect to the next race at Golden Gate Park:

Saturday, the 21st, occurs the race to wagons between the noted trotters, Occident, Fullerton and Purdy, for a purse of $6,000. It may interest our readers to know the time made by these fleet racers in recent private trials, and we therefore append the following as reliable:

Monday, Purdy was driven on the half-mile track a half mile in one minute and four seconds, and continued a quarter further in thirty-six seconds.

Fullerton was driven over the course of the Bay District Association, and made the mile in 2:25½, and repeated in a jog in 2:27.

Occident sparkled in a half mile, handled by Budd Doble, in 1:12½, and made his last quarter in thirty-six seconds.

It will be borne in mind that in neither case did the sagacious drivers give, even to those who "peeped," the best time of their favorites. It was a brush silently, with friends only to record what might be expected when the great struggle takes place. Very heavy wagers have been made that quicker time will be made on Saturday than in any race to wagons ever trotted in the United States.

The race to come off on Saturday next is mile heats, to wagon, which is a drawback to speed. The best time ever made to wagon is 2:24, and that was duplicated by Dexter and another horse.

California's Emperor.

Day before yesterday, Norton I. left us a proclamation respecting corruption and bribery at elections, but it seemed too late in the day for effective publication. Next we see him putting in a protest at the eleventh hour, against the sale of the Lick property. The Call says:

Just before General Cobb delivered the above oration, Emperor Norton stepped to the front and protested against the sale on the ground that all the property in the country belongs to him, and he had not consented to the sale. The Emperor's simple story visibly affected the General and the audience, there being an outburst of laughter. Having discharged his duty, the Emperor retired. He had gorgeously arrayed himself in epaulettes and military frock coat, and his nose bloomed as of yore, with a hirsute forest dimming the glory of the obtuse point.

An Old Printer Gone.

Benjamin Wade, aged about 75 years, died last night at 10 o'clock in Brooklyn. He broke his leg somehow about a week ago, while leading a cow, and the result was paralysis and a combination of complaints, with the effect aforesaid. Mr. W. was the head of a printing house in San Francisco once. He has been living in East Oakland for a number of years, where he was much liked by his neighbors.

Guards' Ball.

The Oakland Guard will give their Thirteenth Anniversary Ball at Brayton Hall, on Thanksgiving Eve, Nov. 25th, the tickets are placed at $1 each, admitting gentleman and ladies. Music by Willis & Dieves' string band. Read the names of the Committee in another column, and you will ask no farther guarantee of what it will be.

The Oakland Ship-yard.

The partly-burned steamer Sacramento will be brought over to the Point for repairs.

M. the Temperance Convention, to be composed of delegates from the Sons of Temperance, Good Templars, Champions of the Red Cross, Labor Unions and other organizations sympathizing with the movement, will attend in Pacific Hall, over the California Theater, on Bush street, San Francisco. The Police Court.

Had but one case before it to-day—that of Ah Sing, who brought the chickens in to market with their heads down—down, derry down, so to speak. Poor Sing perhaps had no idea of the existence of a law to inflict courts and juries, but the judge was compelled to teach him the first lesson, and so Ah got $5 worth. It is gravely hinted that there are parties interested in horse-car lines, where lame animals are driven to extreme suffering, but it leaves no impression like that produced by the sight of a chicken with feathers stroked the wrong way.

The Fountain Foundation.

Workmen commenced operations this forenoon on the site of the coming fountain at the Potter junction. A pipe to supply it with water, was connected with the main on Fourteenth street. A hole about 4 feet square had been dug two or three deep, and the bottom filled in with granite rock and cement, and there were several blocks of dressed granite lying alongside for some other purpose. The work of art will come over in sections by the Creek route. The Louise and several lighters will be employed in the transportation.

Arrests To-day.

Capt. Rand arrested Chas. Morris and John Doyle this forenoon on suspicion of burglary—stealing carpenter's tools. Morris was in on a similar charge here a year or two ago. Officer Hoyt took in Chas. Shaw for having taken offense at the verdict in the McDonough case. No man who could walk as stiff-legged as Shaw, could have been guilty of taking anything else. It required two officers to unbrace his underpinning, as he approached the lock-up.

PROPOSED ATLAS OF CALIFORNIA.

Governor Carpenter, of Iowa, Endorses the Plan.

We take the following endorsement of the Governor of Iowa, in regard to Andreas' Atlas of that State, from the Iowa State Register of October 30th. Capt. Andreas is the leading member of the firm about to issue a grand historical atlas of our own State, as announced in yesterday's TRIBUNE:

STATE OF IOWA, EXECUTIVE DEPARTMENT,
DES MOINES, OCT. 28, 1874.

To whom it may Concern:—I have examined the proof sheets of the Minnesota Illustrated Historical Atlas, by Capt. A. T. Andreas, of Chicago, and I regard it as a work of superior merit, and it seems to me any citizen of Minnesota could hardly do without it. I understand from Mr. E. T. Phelps that Capt. Andreas is now taking the preliminary steps preparatory to publishing a similar Atlas of Iowa, with such improvements as past experience in this business naturally suggests to his mind. Having known Mr. Andreas intimately and well for many years, I have no hesitation in assuring all who may read this that he will do all he proposes, and that the public will find his work fully equal to the promises of his circular and advertisements

Al. Collins,

The genial Under-Sheriff, will not be of much use to himself for an indefinite period. Sheriff Morse has been seen knocking around more frequently in consequence. Collins will get down to his work all the better for the change in due time, no doubt.

Them Signs.

We overlooked three or four in and around the Post-office, all pointing in the Notary office across the way. It is hinted that there are several outside precincts to hear from yet.

The Democratic Victories throughout the Union have roused our citizens to the highest pitch of excitement, but we are glad to note that P. Barbagalata, of No. 1050 Broadway, near Twelfth, still preserves his calmness of mind and serves his customers from his fine assortment of crockery, glassware and hardware at prices as low as the lowest. Give him a call before going elsewhere.

MEDICAL ADVANCEMENT.

The American Surgery and Dispensary, 601 California Street, San Francisco.

The San Francisco Chronicle in speaking upon the subject of "Medical Advancement," says: Considering how greatly success and happiness depend upon good health, and how intimately all the most important interests of life are associated with intellectual and physical strength, medical science, especially as practiced by the leading physicians of the age, must necessarily be given the foremost place in the history of modern progress. Dr. S. Hastings Hall, who is a physician to the American Surgery and Dispensary, 601 California street, has had an extensive hospital and private practice, and the success which has attended his method of cure has been of the most signal character. He is able to refer to many well known and influential residents of this city, as well as throughout the Pacific Coast, whom he has permanently cured after their cases had been pronounced incurable by physicians of first-class standing. Of course there is a satisfactory reason for this, for in medical practice as in every other professional department, effects are only produced by causes which are capable of demonstration. If Dr. Hall were a physician of inferior skill and mediocre attainments, patients who consulted him would have very little chance to gratefully remember him for the great remedial benefits received by them from his treatment of their cases. Being the enlightened and progressive physician that he has proved himself to be, he undertakes, with the greatest confidence, the cure of diseases which, by the obstinacy of their nature, are apt to baffle the very best treatment, unless the practitioner possesses the advantages of such large experience and knowledge as has given distinction to Dr. Hall. His success is owing to the scientific system of treatment which is exclusively practiced by him, and which has proved efficacious in the most obstinate branches of disease. As he makes acute and chronic diseases his specialty, nervous debility, rheumatism, impurities of the blood and other maladies which contribute so much to the sufferings and miseries of existence, are, in the great majority of instances, made to yield to his scientific method of cure. While physicians of conservative ideas and of the old school practice are prone to be slow and uncertain in their treatment, and too frequently keep patients on their hands for indefinite periods, without either removing disease or improving health, Dr. Hall, confident of his superior skill and ability, breaks through the resisting form of the malady almost at the outset of his treatment and thereby opens the way to a speedy cure. This is the result of twenty-five years of experience as one of the most successful physicians practicing as specialist west of the Rocky Mountains. The cures which he has been daily effecting are claimed to be a sufficient guarantee of the superiority of the curative system produced by him, so that all seeking medical aid, if wisely counseled, will place their cases in his hands. In his opinion the melancholy fact cannot be too forcibly pointed out that thousands are annually greatly impaired in health and purse by falling into the hands of unprincipled men, who self-style themselves doctors, and he therefore desires to impress upon the minds of sufferers the importance of making careful inquiry into the claims and reputations of medical men before they employ any physician, as, by so doing, they will be likely to escape prolonged misery and heavy expenses. All Dr. Hall's patients have expressed themselves in the most flattering terms of his services in their behalf, for, in addition to attending strictly to professional requirements of disease, he gives good sound advice for the preservation of health. Dr. S. Hastings Hall may be applied to personally or addressed by letter at 601 California street, corner of Kearny, San Francisco. His office hours are from 9 A. M. to 12 M., 2 to 5, and 7 to 8 P. M.

LIBRARY ASSOCIATION.

Grand Re-opening Next Friday Evening.

Notice is hereby given that the Oakland Library will reopen on Friday, evening, Nov. 20, 1874.

It is proposed to make the occasion of the reopening of the Library upon its new site, with its improved financial condition, and its bright prospects for increased usefulness, a sort of social reunion; and a very cordial invitation is therefore extended not only to the members but to the friends of culture and the public generally to visit the rooms of the Association, adjoining the City Hall, on the evening named, between the hours of 7½ and 10½.

The new Librarian, Miss Ina D. Coolbrith, will be present, and an opportunity will be afforded for those who are not already members, to join the association, and also for the members to withdraw books. Over $200 worth of new books will be upon the shelves.

The Board of Directors have remitted the dues for the month of October and the first half of November, and also any fines that may have been incurred during the same time. For the proper arranging of the library affairs, it is necessary that all books now out should be returned before Tuesday evening, Nov. 17. They may be left at the office of the undersigned, room No. 2, City Hall. The lady members of the Association are requested to meet the Librarian at their Hall on Thursday next, between the hours of 10 A. M. and 4 P. M., to assist in its decoration.

F. M. CAMPBELL,
SECRETARY BOARD OF DIRECTORS OF OAKLAND LIBRARY ASSOCIATION.

Every style of work known in the profession, executed in the best manner and at reasonable rates. SONG OF THE MYSTICS.

Though thou shouldst live a thousand years,
Whatever Fate gives,
Or what refuses,
Let this support thee in thy fears,
Let this console thee in thy fears,
Man loses but the life he lives,
And only lives the life he loses.
Longest and shortest are but one:
The present is the same to all:
The past is done with and forgot;
The future is not yet begun;
Nothing from either can befall,
For none can lose what he has not.
All things from all Eternity
Come round and round the whirling sphere;
It makes no difference if we see
The same thing for a hundred years,
Or for a million. They are here;
Who longest lives, who shortest dies,
Loses the skies and same sweet earth,
For they remain—we disappear.

I will tell thee what to do:
Hold to these things which are few:
Bear in mind that every man
Lives in the present day alone;
Yesterday is forever flown.
To-morrow no man sees, or can:
Short is the time that each man lives,
And small the nock of each thereon:
The longest fame not long survives,
But, like a torch, is handed on,
By poor, tired runners, as they fly,
Of whom the strongest soon will die,
And who themselves do never know,
Much less who died so long ago.

Tell me, what does it mean?
That thou has reached the end—
Hast gone on board—the voyage made,
And come to shore. Descend!

If to another life—
As wisest men declare—
There is, be sure, no want of gods;
They follow even there.

If haply to a state
That knows no joy nor pain,
Thou will no longer tug the car,
Nor make the voyage again.

What harmonious is with thee,
O Universe, is so with me.
Nothing too early, or too late,
That is at thy appointed date.
Everything is fruit to me,
Which thy seasons, Nature, bring!
All things from thee, and all in thee,
To thee returneth everything,
"Dear city of Cecropia,"
The poet said its streets who trod;
Wilt thou not say—be wise and say—
"Dear city of the living God?"
—R. H. Stoddard.

BEALE'S

IMPROVED

Fire Proof Paint

Patented by United States Government, June, 1874.

Especially Adapted to Shingle Roofs.

THE BEST PRESERVATIVE FOR WOOD KNOWN.

Fire Proof Against Sparks and Coals.

IT IS HIGHLY ORNAMENTAL, GIVING THE APPEARANCE OF SLATE-ROOF.

One Painting will Last as Long as Four with any other Paint.

FOR TIN AND IRON IT CANNOT BE EXCELLED, AS IT WILL NOT CRACK AND PEEL OFF, AND WILL NOT CORRODE.

CHEAP AND DURABLE!

THE PAINTING OF SHINGLED ROOFS is commending itself more and more to the public taste and judgment, and the grand desideratum is to be sure of a material which possesses all the necessary qualities, viz: Durability, Cheapness, Fire Proof, and Approved Appearance.

The combination of these desirable qualities has been secured in this Paint, through an experience of forty years' practical knowledge in the compounding and use of all kinds of Paints, and a special study of this branch, together with a thorough knowledge of the various materials used for this purpose.

That I have been successful in this matter can be abundantly proved by testimonials from those who have seen and proved my Paint.

It preserves the shingles by thoroughly saturating the wood, leaving no ridge or sediment at the butts, to create a gathering of water, thus rotting the shingles, but reverses this by penetrating the wood as far as the rain would otherwise affect it. It is a thorough protection against all flying fire to which roofs are ordinarily exposed, and no equal improvement to the looks of a building can so cheaply be purchased as a coat of this Paint upon roof.

PRIVATE MEDICAL AID!

QUICK CURES! MODERATE CHARGES!

DR. W. K. DOHERTY'S

PRIVATE

MEDICAL & SURGICAL INSTITUTE

(Founded in 1858)

No. 519 SACRAMENTO STREET,

Corner of Leidesdorff, a few doors below the What Cheer House; Private entrance on Leidesdorff street, San Francisco.

Established expressly to afford the afflicted sound and scientific Medical Aid in the treatment and cure of all Private and Chronic Diseases, cases of secrecy, and all Sexual Disorders.

TO THE AFFLICTED.

DR. W. K. DOHERTY RETURNS HIS sincere thanks to his numerous patients for their patronage, and would take this opportunity to remind them that he continues to consult at his Institute for the cure of chronic diseases of the Lungs, Liver, Kidneys, Digestive and Genito-Urinary Organs, and all Private Diseases, and he hopes that his long experience and successful practice will continue to insure him a share of public patronage. By his practice of many years in Europe and the United States, he is enabled to apply the most efficient and successful remedies against diseases of all kinds. He cures without mercury, charges moderate, treats his patients in a correct and honorable way, and has references of unquestionable veracity from men of Known respectability and high standing in society. All parties consulting him, by letter or otherwise, will receive the best and gentlest treatment and implicit secrecy.

DR. DOHERTY would respectfully call attention to the following certificates from two of his patients, who, having fully recovered their health, desire to make known their remedial agent. It will be seen that their statements are fully authenticated by a Notary Public. The welfare of society imperiously demands their publicity, and they are given more to warn the unwary than to sound the praises of a physician, of whom hundreds of like cases can be cited, during a practice of more than twenty years:

A Case of Gleet and Stricture.

READ THE FOLLOWING:

DR. DOHERTY—Dear Sir: I feel my health so fully restored that, in common gratitude, I believe I should make you some written acknowledgment for your valuable services — particularly so, as your fee was small for the work performed.

I arrived in this city from the East about one year ago, and was then suffering from an old case of Gleet, complicated with Stricture. Being a stranger in this city, and believing those doctors who gave such positive assurances of success were necessarily the best (some of whom have a large number of titles), I placed myself in their charge, and continued under their treatment until I had lost nearly all hope and a considerable sum of money. I wish to say now that you are the sixth doctor I have employed, and the only one that has ever done me any service. I am entirely cured, and my general health is better than it has been for years.

In conclusion, I would say to the many unfortunates who require medical advice, if you doubt us to whom you should employ, ask DR. DOHERTY for my address, and call and see me. (I keep store in this city.) My experience may save you many dollars.

I would also add that, in the early stage of my disease, I used a large amount of the preparations advertised as an infallible cure for Gonorrhea, Gleet, etc., but never derived any benefit from them.

Iam, Doctor, very truly, yours, L. H.
San Francisco, June 16, 1874.
Subscribed and sworn to before me this 21st day of June, A. D. 1874.
A. S. GOULD, Notary Public.

Seminal Weakness.

A Sworn to Certificate of a Most Remarkable Cure of SPERMATORRHEA.

A desire to benefit humanity, and a feeling of gratitude to DR. W. K. DOHERTY alone induces me to make this statement. For many years I had been afflicted with that fearful disease known as Spermatorrhea, but until 1855 experienced but little trouble or inconvenience. In that year, however, I had seminal weakness to a fearful extent, which was soon followed by the most alarming symptoms, a weakness of the back and limbs, pain in the head, dimness of vision, nervousness and general debility. My mind, too, was affected to such an extent as to seriously impair my memory; my ideas were confused and spirits depressed. I was averse to society; had evil forebodings and self-distrust, and was entirely unfitted for the duties of life. From 1855 to the summer of 1863 I employed the very best medical talent I could find, and spent several hundred dollars, but in no instance obtained more than temporary relief. I had about concluded that there was no relief for me in the world, but reading DR. DOHERTY'S advertisement, I thought I would call and see him, as he charged nothing for consultation. I had an interview with the doctor at his office on Sacramento street, and his fee for treatment was so reasonable I determined to try him, although I did not expect much benefit from his treatment. On the 5th of December last I placed myself under his care; in one week I found myself very much improved, and now, after five weeks' treatment, I feel thoroughly cured of all my troubles and in the enjoyment of the best of health. Hoping that my experience may be of benefit to others similarly afflicted, I subscribe myself, JAMES JOHNSON.

Subscribed and sworn to before me this 15th day of January, A. D. 1861.
A. G. RANDALL, Notary Public.

To Correspondents.

Patients (male or female) residing in any part of the country, however, distant, who may desire the opinion or advice of Dr. Doherty in their respective cases, and who think proper to submit a written statement of such, in preference to holding a personal interview, are respectfully assured that their communications will be held most sacred. The doctor is a regular graduate, and may be consulted with every confidence.

If the case be fully and candidly described, personal communication will be unnecessary, as instructions for diet, regimen and the general treatment of the case itself (including the remedies), will be forwarded without delay, and in such a manner as to convey no idea of the purport of the letter or parcel so transmitted.

Should your case require immediate attention, send ten dollars in coin (or that value in currency), by mail or Wells, Fargo & Co.'s Express, and a package of medicines will be sent to your address, with necessary instructions for use.

Consultations, at the office or by letter, FREE. Permanent cure guaranteed, or no pay. Address W. K. DOHERTY, M. D., San Francisco, Cal.

Spermatorrhea.

DR. DOHERTY has published an important pamphlet embodying his own views and experience in relation to Impotence or Virility, being a short treatise on Spermatorrhea or Seminal Weakness, Nervous and Physical Debility consequent on this affection, and other diseases of the sexual organs.

This little work contains information of the utmost value to all, whether married or single, and will be sent FREE by mail on receipt of six cents in postage stamps for return postage. Address,

W. K. DOHERTY, M. D.,
SAN FRANCISCO.
